Reference is made to [REDACTED] in which a three-phase plan of action was said to have been drawn up by the Communist Party of Brazil (PCB) in preparation for the time when that Party's mandates are withdrawn.

25X1A2g

1. Phase I, which has already been described in [REDACTED] 25X1A2g deals with the plan for protecting Luiz Carlos Prestes and transferring PCB funds abroad. This phase is now reportedly in readiness for operation when necessary, with suitable persons (as yet unidentified) assigned to the various tasks.
2. Phase II, which is to be carried out when it is certain that the mandates are to be withdrawn, is given as follows:
 - a. Practical application of all principles of Lenin and Stalin;
 - b. Personal revenge; and
 - c. Directions for action.
3. Phase III is concerned with clandestine action to be carried out after the mandates are withdrawn. It consists of the following:
 - a. Campaign to discredit the Brazilian Government and its backers;
 - b. Political alliances (national and foreign);
 - c. Strikes;
 - d. Sabotage;
 - e. Interference with labor syndicates; and
 - f. Armed revolt, if necessary and practicable.
